CREATING THE WILD WORLD

OF ZOOTOPIA 2 (RATED PG) IN THEATERS NOVEMBER 26TH

The furry, finned and hooved residents of Zootopia are back and the fascinating city they call home has expanded. So have the responsibilities of Judy Hopps (voice of Ginnifer Goodwin) and Nick Wilde (voice of Jason Bateman) who are now partnered as rookie cops. But their sometimes-quarrelsome partnership is put to the test when they find themselves on the twisting trail of a mystery tied to the arrival of a venomous snake in the animal metropolis. We spoke with Griselda Sastrawinata-Lemay, Associate Production Designer and Limei Hshieh, Art Director, Environments to learn more about the new locations and the process of creating this fantastical world.

Q WHAT ARE SOME OF THE LOCATIONS WE'LL SEE IN THE FILM?

A “We revisit the beloved locations from the first film, including Judy’s sad little apartment,” says Hshieh. (The new story takes place within a week after the first film, so she hasn’t had time to move yet.) “And we show the interior of Nick’s home for the first time. It’s a typical bachelor pad. You’re going to laugh when you see it. We’ve also created new locations, including Marsh Market, a home for semi-aquatic animals. Because many of these animals don’t have legs and some of them crawl to get around, we envisioned a water-park type environment, with tubes and slides for transportation. There are also piers, wharfs and fishing boats. It’s a fun place.”

Another key location is Lynxley Manor. “It’s an important setting in the story. Nick and Judy must go undercover and attend a super fancy gala at Lynxley Manor,” explains Sastrawinata-Lemay. “Since lynxes live in an icy cold climate in Tundra Town, we used a lot of cool colors, shades of blue with hints of magenta to make the setting a winter fantasy. It’s a beautiful palette.”

Q ARE THERE ANY CHANGES IN THE MAIN CHARACTERS’ APPEARANCE?

A “Not their actual physical appearance, of course, but we did have fun dressing Judy and Nick up for the gala at Lynxley Manor,” says Sastrawinata-Lemay. “We’re really excited about their outfits. This is the first time we see Judy in a dress. Because she is so little, we gave her volume with a ballgown. And because bunnies like marigolds, Judy’s gown is a marigold color. Nick wears a tuxedo with a notched collar. They both look very elegant.”

Q HOW DO YOU BEGIN YOUR DESIGN WORK?

A “We always start with the production designer and directors. For locations, our main starting point is looking at the characters,” explains Hshieh. “Each location should reflect the animal’s living habits. Our movie-making goal is to enhance the story through color. Directors Jarad Bush and Byron Howard wanted Zootopia 2 to feel like a comedy,” Sastrawinata-Lemay adds. “So the palette is light, bright and colorful, except in the serious dark moments.”

Q DID YOU ENCOUNTER ANY CHALLENGES ALONG THE WAY?

A “Oh, there are always challenges,” Hshieh says. “A lot of them are about time. Everything must move very quickly and efficiently. The story is developing at the same time we are designing, and there are sometimes story changes that impact our design work.” Sastrawinata-Lemay adds “The directors’ attitude and focus on creating something that welcomes audiences back to Zootopia for another great time trickled down to everyone. This is the most fun film I’ve ever worked on.”

Be a hero to your family with the gift of a cruise on the Disney Destiny, the newest ship in the Disney Cruise Line fleet. The heroes-and-villains themed ship makes its maiden voyage on November 20, 2025, kicking off an inaugural season of 4-night and 5-night cruises from Fort Lauderdale to the Bahamas and Western Caribbean. From the moment you arrive, you'll be immersed in adventures inspired by your favorite legendary heroes and villains from Disney, Pixar and Marvel films.

YOUR VOYAGE AWAITS

STUNNING SHOWS THAT THRILL

Among the adventures awaiting you are three incredible Broadway-style stage shows onboard including Disney Hercules, a brand-new modern retelling take on Walt Disney Animation Studio's classic film that features jaw-dropping puppetry, including a giant hydra and an iconic battle with the Titans. You'll want to hum along to the beloved songs from the original film, including the debut of the song "Shooting Star," which was originally written for the film.

Prepare to rock out at Pirate's Rocking Parlay Party—a roguish nighttime spectacular with a live rock band and famous Disney Cruise Line fireworks at sea (when weather permits).

WHEN HUNGER FLEXES ITS MUSCLES

Feed your growling tummy at Pride Lands: Feast of The Lion King, where a colorful ensemble of live performers take Guests on a musical journey as charismatic storytellers Mwongozo and Shaha share the timeless tale. It's the perfect circle of enjoyment, entertainment, fabulous décor and delicious food featuring African cuisine balanced with familiar fare.
